Member, Malaysian Bar

Royce is a Senior Associate in the dispute resolution team with a focus on complex litigation and arbitration.

His portfolio is both robust and diverse, having represented clients in a wide spectrum of high-value and complex matters spanning construction, maritime and shipping, civil and commercial disputes, fraud, and asset recovery. He also welcomes instructions outside these practice areas and frequently provides advisory services as well, reflecting his versatility as both counsel and solicitor.

Royce appears frequently as counsel and co-counsel across all levels of the Malaysian Courts and has extensive experience in both domestic and international arbitrations under leading institutional rules including the ICC, AIAC, PAM and SIAC.

Royce graduated from University London with an LL.B. (Hons) in 2018, obtained his Certificate in Legal Practice in 2019, and was called to the Malaysian Bar in 2021.

Fluent in English, Malay, Mandarin, and Cantonese, Royce is able to engage effectively with a broad range of clients and stakeholders across multiple jurisdictions.
